

When your loved one needs personalized care, you deserve an experienced, professional partner who can help you make the best choices.

We understand
Every client is unique.
Every family is special.
Every situation is different.

That's why we bring a personal touch to every individual we care for.

"When my wife needed care we turned to Cheryl for advice. She quickly assessed our needs and helped us create a plan we all felt comfortable with. Her follow-up and attention to detail put my mind at ease."

We're here to help

All About Care provides you with relief from the worry and burden of finding qualified caregivers so that you can concentrate on spending time with your loved one.

We offer a free, no obligation assessment of your loved one's unique care needs then match them with competent, qualified caregivers or household support at a price you can afford.

We offer flexibility

All About Care offers a flexible, personalized approach. You determine the level of involvement you want and we provide the expertise and peace of mind you seek.

Our caregiver partners

Our caregivers are rigorously pre-screened for background, personality and experience. Each is licensed, bonded and insured for your peace of mind. And most importantly, they love what they do.

Consulting and Placement Services

All About Care provides services that simplify the process of finding quality care and senior housing. Our Care Advisors help families review options, and match seniors with care choices that support their individual needs. We offer free transition assistance, arrange tours and escort to pre-screened senior communities when staying at home is no longer the best option.

Founder: Cheryl Saeger CSA

After twenty-eight years in the Senior Care industry including owning and operating an adult family home and a home-care agency, I founded All About Care because I saw a need for families to have access to affordable care and support services.

Our approach is personalized, giving clients the control they want and the peace of mind they deserve.
